TURTLE SOUP and Merchants Lunch this morning at the New McClure House Sample Rooms.

THE ST. JAMES HOTEL.—This large, accessible and elegant hotel building has been lying idle for a long time, but at length a practical and experienced hotel keeper has been found to take it of Mr. George Schenck, late proprietor of the Merchants' Hotel at Huntington, W. Va., has leased the house for a period of one year from next October, with the privilege of extending the time of the lease to three years if he desires. He expects to be ready to open the hotel about the middle of next month, and proposes to keep a hotel unexcelled by any in the city. It can possibly be done.

SALES OF PROPERTY AT AUCTION.—Auctioneer Haller yesterday sold the old Parker Hotel, on Main street, near the Belmont Hotel, at public vendue, for James P. Rodgers, trustee. The U. S. Building and Loan Association became the purchaser at $4,850.

On Tuesday Mr. Haller sold the personal property belonging to Father Kreuch, including the machinery used in pressing grapes, wine casks, etc.; also a cart, buggy and two horses. The following officers were elected: James Todd, President; Charles Wright, Vice President; Fritz Ritter, John A. Clynch, Finance Committee; Judge Houston then made a speech and the club adjourned.

The Greenback meeting at the corner of Wood and Eleventh streets last night was not numerous, attended by a few, probably on account of the inclemency of the air.

There was a rousing meeting of Republicans at Benwood last night, addressed by Jake Kemple. His speech was received with the most enthusiastic applause, and at its close cheers were given for the Republican Presidential nominees, and the ticket, and then some one proposed a toast to the next Prosecuting Attorney of Marshall county, Jacob Kemple, which was responded to with a will.

MINOR MENTION.

The Delogs of a Day Batted Down for Hasty Readers.

We are very sorry to hear that the Delogs of a Day have been batted down for hasty readers. We are sure that the Delogs of a Day will be a great success.

A small private party of society young folks was held at Mr. Loring's last night. The Democrats of the First ward have procured an apple and propose raising it Saturday night.

Turners met last night to make their final arrangements for attending the Turnfest at Allegheny.

The displays of fruits and vegetables in our different market houses on market days are exceedingly fine.

There was a large surprise party Tuesday night at the residence of Mr. Samuel Johnson, on Twenty-sixth street.

The Donovan had his foot crushed in Kaaly & Brooks' coal bank, yesterday morning, by a fall of limestone.

About forty cart loads of nails were shipped over the C. T. V. & W. R. R. last week to points in the north and west.

We are indebted to Col. E. H. Dick for a pamphlet description of Italy Springs and the country in its vicinity.

Wheat has begun in the country hereabouts, and some native wheat has already begun to appear in the mills.

COWEN-MEYER.

One Bachelor and One Belle Lost.

Captain Frank H. Cowen, a rising young attorney, and Miss Kate Meyer, were married last night at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Henry Meyer, at St. Clairville.

The wedding here recorded was a quiet one, witnessed only by the immediate friends of the families. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Conkle, of the M. E. Church. Miss Kate has served that congregation for years, both in church and Sunday School, as organist, the bride was dressed in a bright green silk and satin with a rich lace train.

The groom wore the conventional suit of black with a white vest. After a sumptuous dinner the newly married couple left at 12 M., by way of the C. T. V. & W. R. R. for Marquette, Michigan. They were accompanied by Judge D. D. Cowen, the groom's father, who goes North to escape the heat here, from which he suffers in this locality.

Two happy pairs were the recipients of the following presents:

Beautiful Singer Sewing Machine, Judge Cowen.

Tablecloth and napkins, Albert Troll. Baltham towels, Miss Annie Beale.

Marietta quilt, Mrs. J. A. Dinger. Marquette quilt, Mrs. H. C. Weidner.

China chamber set, ornamented, D. T. and M. Cowen.

Elegant silver cake stand, and silver and cut glass fruit basket, from friends in the city.

Bohemian glass toilet set, five pieces, Warren Cowen.

Silver knife, fork and spoon, in elegant case, May Cowen.

Silver butter dish, Robert and Jesse Meyer.

Silver vase, Ella Cowen.

Silver perfume cabinet, Emma Pennington.

Silver cup, Laura Pratt.

Silver silver spoons, Dr. G. E. Close.

Silver dinner carter, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hoze.

Elegant vase, lamp and set of engraved glassware, P. S. Cowen.

Silver molasses cruet, Maggie and Belle Meyer.

PERSONAL MENTION.—Several of the lads and lassies who visited Wheeling last night, as members of the H. J. Leasure boat club, were in the city.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

RELAIRIE.

Captain Little has just received order No. 10 from Lieut. Col. Shepherd, calling for the encampment of Company D, with the rest of the Second Regiment, at Barnesville, from Monday morning, August 23d, to Saturday evening, August 28th.

The companies are required to drill at least twice each week until the encampment. Company D will drill Mondays and Fridays.

George Halsey is in town. Council met Tuesday evening in the Mayor's office, with Mr. Bippus in the chair. The business which drew the greater part of the crowd that sat and stood in the windows to see that no air got into the room, was the police matter, and that was put off till after the other business.

James Horn wants $50 damages from the city because the run on Noble street tore down part of his wall on Indian Run. Council appointed a meeting, as committee of the whole, on the spot, Wednesday evening.

Jacob Heatherington proposes to lay a sewer from certain lots, that need drainage for the health of the neighborhood and the good of the lots, if the city will furnish the water.

The ordinance allowing saloons to be kept open till 12 o'clock was brought up at Council and consideration of it was indefinitely postponed.

A number of nominations have been made among the non-commissioned officers and privates of Company D. The roster is now full.

The Bellaire and Southwest will bid for part of the passengers to the Mountaineer camp meeting this summer. Those going by this route will take the boat at Wege.

Chris Bippus proposed to Council that they furnish half the money and he and others would furnish the other half and would raise a volunteer hook and ladder company. The fire at Kemple's showed the need of ladders and none were easily found. The old ones of the Plunney company are rotten.

The Mayor and Council will have their track down that the Council ordered removed, and the Chairman of the Committee on Council on Streets and Alleys, says that all the orders of Council relating to streets, removing this track, etc., have been ignored completely.

Rev. S. H. Wallace, D. D., of Centerville, will preach morning and evening next Sunday at the Presbyterian Church, in George Squigles has portraits of some of the sailors' base ball nine on his cupboard door. Gus. Hardenstein's is the best.

Dr. Satterthwaite and wife got home Wednesday evening.

The members of the Executive Committee of the Bellaire club neglected to appear at the meeting called for Tuesday evening. For a committee that was given control of the campaign, that is certainly neglect when a meeting has been advertised, with L. Danford as speaker, for next Saturday evening.

The return game of base ball between the Bellaire and La Belle nine will take place on Wednesday Island next Saturday afternoon. The Bellaire nine will have no mercy on La Belle by letting them win any longer!

The Mayor was beaten in his conflict with the Council. Tuesday night the Mayor again refused to sustain the Mayor's action in suspending or discharging the police. It is now decided that the old policemen are the only policemen, and if prisoners do not pay their fines in cash the policemen making the arrests will not receive any fees.

Business at the New County Seat of Taylor.—The Rival Political Clubs. (Grafton, August 3, 1880.)

The B. & O. R. R. Co., has at this time an immense run of freight, and the rolling stock of the Company is taxed to its utmost to meet the demand for transportation. The consequence of this is that a large number of persons find profitable employment in each department of the Company.

Business at Grafton is brisk, and the goodly number of railroad employees, together with the other laborers, artisans, mechanics and shopkeepers of the city, makes it a good market for a large farmer. The shops and stores are kept supplied with a great variety of goods of this life, with which this section so plentifully abounds, when attended with intelligent and skillful hands. Our markets are well supplied with Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, green corn, green beans, cabbage, onions, tomatoes, melons, cantaloupes and chickens, butter and eggs, and apples, peaches and pears. Why is it that there remains thousands of uncultivated acres in West Virginia?

A new cow house in Grafton, is nearly ready for the roof, and it attracts considerable attention as the finest specimen of architecture in the county. The efforts for the removal of the county seat back to dear old Grafton, grow in the new building, approaching completion, and very few have any idea that the voters of the county will be so foolish as to take such a backward step.

The Republican cause is still progressing in the order of the day, and Arthur club was addressed last Thursday night by Thomas Stagers, Esq., of Fairmont. He is a youthful looking man, but he is able to deal out political truths highly entertaining to the Democrats, though to the club has rented of Mr. G. Brinkman, a genuine Republican, his comradious hall, for the campaign.

This was well filled on the occasion referred to, and much enthusiasm prevailed. Every man seemed to be a number of men, and the Democrats, who are the people's candidates, the club now numbers nearly two hundred, and has a regular weekly increase of about thirty.

The Democrats procured a hall next door to Brinkman's hall, and organized a Hancock club, and fixed upon the same night each week as that of the Garfield club for their meetings. It is truly inspiring to see the Democrats, who are the people's candidates, the club now numbers nearly two hundred, and has a regular weekly increase of about thirty.
